“ To the family of Clarence Glymph, please accept my sincere condolences. Whenever I learn of the passing of someone so young, it particularly touches my heart. I have a son and a daughter close in age, so as one parent to another my heart aches for you. I have found at such times Isaiah 41:10,13, to be such a word of comfort. It says there, do not be afraid, for I am with, I will fortify you, yes, I will help you. To know that our Heavenly Father is here for us in such a wonderful way can give us the strength to continue on. I truly hope that you and your family will find solace in his words. May the love and support from others also be encouraging to you during this difficult time.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Williams. There are a few things in life that hurts as much as the death of a loved one. But it is at these times that we gain comfort from the Father of Tender Mercies and the God of all comfort.-2 Cor 1:3,4. He comforts us with scriptures such as John 5:28,29, Rev 21:3,4 & Acts 24:14,15. Please read. Also for more on What Hope for the Dead please visit jw.org. Thanks.

“ I pray God will give you that peace that surpasses all understanding in your time of sorrow. Clarence was a joy to be around, you could not help falling in love with him. I will never forget hearing him call, Ms. Davis, knowing he was about to tell me something that would make me smile. He will never be forgotten, know that you are not in this alone, I feel the hurt. There is comfort in knowing that we will see him again and will never have to say good bye. When time has passed, all of the family and friends have gone, remember-Just Jesus. He is joy in times of sorrow. -Mrs. B. Davis and Family
