“ My deepest condolences to the family. I pray that God will give strength and comfort to the family. Coach Isler will truly be missed. He was all three of my sons coach/mentor during their time at Salem Middle School. Coach would talk to each of the players about life, how to dress and keep themselves up. He always told them to please do something constructive with their life. He has truly impacted each player which has came across his life. If he could be here now he would be very proud of each of my sons. One is married to a beautiful wife, working for an engineering company and in his last year of college. The second runs his own trucking company and a father of two children. The third helps his brother run the company and has a daughter. All three has always went back to Salem to check on Coach Isler until he retired and they lost contact with him. My youngest tried to find him to invite him and wife to his wedding. Just know Coach Isler left an impression on all the boys he coached.

“ It is so hard to accept he is gone so suddenly. I admired his love and diligence for his grand daughter while he and wife helped grand daughter navigate through the Zoom links for virtual classes most of the days. His love, diligence, hardwork, and good demeanor will forever be remembered! Adieu great Father and Grandfather.

“ Mr. Isler was a kind, gentle soul. I knew him from Salem Jr. High and Lithonia High School. But I knew him best from Greenforest Community Baptist Church. He was in my mom's New Beginnings Fulfillment Hour class. When I was young and pregnant with my first child, he kindly told my mother that the situation was "just a bump in the road." She was always grateful for his words. He will be missed.

“ Quinn and Brittany, I remember the times your father would support you for your many endeavors. There was such pride in his voice as you both completed the various life milestones...playing football, high school, college, getting married, finding your ideal jobs, and having children. I do understand your loss; however, continue to live on his memories and love, for God knew what he was doing when He gave you Klarence as your father.

“ I am sorry to hear about your passing coach. You were awesome at Salem kept me out of trouble. Rest well coach

Gregory Perdue - March 28, 2021 at 09:31 PM

“ To the family: I am so very sorry for your lose. It is evident how much Coach meant to you all by the heartfelt memories you have shared here. Coach was an amazing member of our Salem Middle School family as well. There wasn't a time I was I his company that he didn't make me laugh or smile. We shared a lot of talks that I am glad we were able to have. I am just so sorry that his time on this earth has ended all to soon. My prayers of comfort to you all.

“ Cuz - You were the light of our lives when you, Brenda and Quinn lived with us in San Antonio. You gave us comfort during the most difficult time in our lives - the passing of our son and brother, Vincent. I always enjoyed your presence when you were here. Though your passing is so surreal to me, God has gain another angel. To my family in Albany and Atlanta, my love, prayers, and condolence.

“ I can't seem to find the words to express how much he means to me. Uncle dd and I talked from time to time. We texted more than anything. (even though he would respond a day or two later LOL) Every time we would talk he tells me he love me, and how proud of me he is. I haven't meet anyone in this life time as genuine and caring as him. He was a hero in the eyes of so many. His presence will always be remembered. Uncle dd I love you and I'm 100% sure that you knew that. Always on my mind, forever in my heart ❤️ - I'kea C
