“ I'll always remember his smile and his infectious laugh. He was more like a father to me than a grandfather and I looked up to him. I joined the Air Force because of him. Re-enlisted on his birthday in June of 2021 because of him. And now I'm tryin to be a good father and husband because of him.

As my family and I navigate thru this difficult time, I try to find comfort in knowing he lived a full blessed life, and seemingly had a peaceful death. I try to find peace in knowing that we are believers in Christ and that one day we will see him again. So until then, I'll do my best to continue the legacy, and honor the name
