October 17, 1958 - March 28, 2017

Clarence Wendell Kemp was born October 17, 1958 in Duluth, GA to Mr. Ellis & Inez Kemp

Education

Clarence received his education in the Gwinnett County School System: by way of Hooper Renwick School (before integration), Lawrenceville Middle School, and finally graduated from Dacula High School in May 1976

His Life

Clarence was known to all by “Wen or Uncle Wen”. He was raised in Gwinnett County, then moved to Atlanta in his later years. He was very passionate about his love of family. It was so much so that he started an annual Mother’s Day Celebration and a Family Bible Study. He accepted his calling to become a Minister on July 27, 2014. Clarence was not only devoted to his family but he had a love for young children and young adults. He would gather all the children in the neighborhood to go camping and fishing. He would bring them all back home and watch movies, and teach them to play various sports.

His Legacy

Clarence departed his life on March 28, 2017. He was preceded in death by both his parents Ellis and Inez Kemp, brother Richard Kemp, and sister Paulette Kemp.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife Joyce Kemp, son Darrell (Audrey) Kinney, three grandsons Jaydon, Jordan, and Kovin Kinney. Two God son Christopher Smith and Tommago Bell. He leaves six siblings sister Mary Kemp, brother's John Kemp, Donn Kemp, Michael Kemp, Hilton Kemp, and Hollis Kemp and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ My family and I are sorry for your loss. The Bible at Revelations 21:4 promises a time when mourning will be no more. It also promises the human family will have the prospect of enjoying life without end, free from all sickness and disease. You have the prospect of being reunited with you loved ones right here on earth but under very different conditions.
