“ To The Stovall Family,

May the warm Memories you have soothe your souls, My Deepest Condolences.

The loss is unbearable in its entirety. "Absence and death are the same.

Only that, in death there is no more pain or suffering". Stovall would tell us all the time, "We all will have to go one day", so this is a Celebration.

He would always give you some words of hope and encouragement!

We were honored that we got a mentor like Stovall, thank you family for sharing him with us all. Although, there is no adequate comfort, I hope his spirit is always by your side, looking over your family.

May you always remember the Love and Laughter.

*With Heartfelt Sympathy,

“ ~ In Memory of our Classmate ~

*Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed, and very dear.

“ You were all a Big Brother should have been. I was so blessed and grateful to call you my big brah. I am so sorry for our separation but it is only in the physical. You will ALWAYS be my big brah-- ALWAYS. I cannot even articulate the pain or express the grief, so I will do all I know to do--just praise our God anyway. You belonged to Him and I know you loved Him because you talked about Him regularly. You are now the family newest angel and will be missed in the physical but always with us in our now broken hearts. Love you Clarence Stovall, Jr. Thankful to God for our lineage and I was such a lucky girl and always happy to say, "that my big brother." Rest well Clarence, you deserve it for all the good you have done for others. You changed so many lives and many aspired to be like you, while you were just being you. What an awesome legacy you have left. With Love, Cora (still in tears).

“ Life Is but a Stopping Place

*Life is but a stopping place, a place in what's to be,
A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys. different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay.
Our destination is a place, far greater than we know,
For some the journey's quicker, for some the journeys slow.
And when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward
and find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord
Will miss you forever,*
