“Jesus came to heal the broken hearted and your heart is broken today. Only Jesus can heal your sorrow over losing a husband, father, brother. I pray that the Lord will give you comfort because He loves you and have promised everlasting consolation and hope through His grace. Blessed be to God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; who comforts you in your time of grief and distress, that you may be uplifted, encouraged and protected from all sadness and hurt as you walk this journey through the grief of losing a dear loved one. “Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.” Is 41:10

“ Mr. English and his family were so instrumental in my journey to becoming Seventh day Adventist. His wife would pick me up from work to take me to New Believers classes at Decatur. Matthew would take me and my friend to church on Sabbaths. Mr. English was so supportive and friendly. They treated me like family. Although my time with them was brief, I will never forget him and the impression his family made on my life and my walk with Christ. Thank you English family. Until we all meet again at the last trump and His glorious appearing.

“ One of my fondest memories was those times when I went to his home to perform services on his system. One thing that always stuck out in my mind is when I pulled up to his home, I saw a lawn that was laid out. It was ready to tee off on because he really took great care to manicure his lawn.

“ Clarett was a dear friend to my husband and myself for many years. His smile and laugh will be missed along with his kind and generous spirit. he loved sharing the Gospel of Jesus with me. I'm almost 99 yo and he was such a special friend to me and to my family. We will miss him so much and know that the world is not as bright without Clarett in it. Our thoughts and prayers with his family & friends as we mourn our loss of Clarett.

“ *My memories of my Cousin, Clarett
(from Ingie C. HoShing)*

I am heartbroken and deeply pained at the sudden and untimely passing of my beloved, Cousin, Clarett.

Clarett was very outspoken. He would tease me which could be funny and annoying at times but I know he meant no harm. He was just Clarett, my lovable cousin and friend! He was friendly, caring, warm, jovial, down to earth and the life of any party. Clarett was BIG on Family, which meant the world to him, and always kept in touch with his phone calls or visits to his childhood home, Jamaica, Land he loved. I will always remember one of his favourite lines, "We are Family!" I am really going to miss him.

My Family, let us take comfort, "As we await the Blessed Hope and Glorious Appearance of our Great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ."
