“ Clarice was such a special person. Our friendship meant a lot to me. We would share tears and laughter over our families. She was always very straight forward and you knew exactly how things were going or where you stood. I will miss her smile and advice. I'm so sorry for her family's loss. She loved her boys, Shelby and her large family. John, Jamie, Doug and Shelby you will be in my prayers!!!

“ My dear friend you decided to go home to Jesus. I know he was waiting for such a wonderful person as you. We worked together like two well oiled machines. We became friends and allies while laughing and sharing. Your super sons and wonderful grand daughter stay strong and keep in touch. Love you all.

“ Clarice, Lynda, Mary Ann, Brenda, Bonnie, Ginny and I have been friends for 65 years. We started life together at College Street Elementary School and remained friends through all these years. We never let more than a few years go by that we didn't get together and we saw Clarice a few weeks at a luncheon for the HHS class of 1968. Clarice was always joyous and I will miss her presence in my life. Godspeed, old friend.

My condolences to her family.
