

Mrs. Classie Lee Lancaster

October 5, 1937 - February 10, 2024

Classie Lee Lancaster was born on October 5, 1937 to the union of Amos Ashley, Sr and Delia Mapson Ashley in Montgomery County, Alabama. She was the eighth child in a family of nine. Seven of which have preceded her in death. Jessie Ashley, Mattie Williams, Amos Ashley, Jr., Ethel Mae Faulk, Samuel Ashley, Jr and Mary Ashley.

Classie received her education in Montgomery, Alabama. She aspired to be a nurse from a young age. In her early years she worked at Jackson Hospital, Victorian Furniture and Maxwell Airforce Base, later becoming a homemaker. People would describe her as a woman who is capable, humble, honest, kind, a shining soul, amazing style and grace with a meek disposition; reflective of the kind of person God would want us to be. She loved her parents, siblings and all her family.

Classie met and married Henry Lee Lancaster on April 16, 1960. To this union was born a baby girl, Gwendolyn Evetta Lancaster Bonair. She was a devoted wife that absolutely loved her husband even through dementia. As a mother from the beginning to the morning of her last breath. Her love for her daughter was divine, unwavering and unconditional, filled with admiration. When Ian Wendell, her grandson, was born, his presence gave her new life and new energy. He was one of her most precious gift from God. Once in Georgia, as dementia progressed, she found care, love and support through her great great niece Blessing Alexandra whom she loved as a grandchild and two great grand puppies, Casey, who kept a watchful eye on her, and Roxie.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory, her husband Henry, daughter Gwendolyn, grandson Ian, granddaughter Blessing, sister Cozetta Cobbs, brother Winston (Gussie) Ashley. Nieces and nephews Peter, Yolanda Denise, Anthony, Debbie, Debra, Jeffery, Samuel (Bryant), Darwin (Elaine), Jessie, Ruby, Cornelius, Anissa (Daniel) Lisa, Mark (Stacey), Albert (Michelle), Aubrey (Carolyn), Jeffery, Kevin & Darnelle and a host of great nieces and nephews.

“ Thank you Cousin Gwendolyn Evetta Lancaster-Bonair for informing me of your mother's passing/transition and allowing me to participate remotely along with other family members and friends in this remembrance process via the provided link.

My thoughts are with you and your father Henry Lee Lancaster during this time.

Dear Aunt Classie, your mom was a beautiful person inside and out. All I can remember about her is only good things. My Uncle Henry Lee Lancaster, your dad was a very lucky man to have had such a beautiful and loving wife, with whom he shared honor and grace of their beautiful daughter Gwendolyn Evetta Lancaster-Bonair.

Aunt Classie "Ashley Roots Mapson" Lancaster you will be forever missed and remembered.

Love.
