“ I will miss my mother in law. No one could have told me that this time would have come so soon. Ms. Claudia came to live with us for a couple of months, and I got to know her better. She was full of life and funny as heck. When she went to the nursing home she gained many friends but was always funny when I would come thru the doors she would always say "Thank God you are here" and I would wheel her to her room and do her hair or just talk to her. I always teased her about if she had found a boyfriend and she would say "what I need with one of those"? These are some of the memories and conversations I will miss having with Ms. Claudia. Rest in Peace and in Heaven and take care of Remo.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope during this time. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort, the love of your family and friends give you the strength you need to endure. ( 2 Corinth.1:3,4)
