DEATH:

Not annihilation, separation. The Apostle Paul said absent from the body is present with the Lord(which is far better). Thought the reality is painful and heartbreaking, we are Commanded to comfort each other in light of this. Euphemistically, the Scriptures referred to this enemy that has been conquered by Our Lord as SLEEP. The writer of Hebrews in chapter 11 said of the passing Saints, ALL THESE DIED IN FAITH. Next time we see each other Uncle Massop, WILL BE IN OUR GLORIFIED STATE.

“ Man, I will miss saying in my Jamaican parlance, “Wha a gwan Claude,” when I pull up at the house and he ambles out of the garage. His reply was always, “nutten,” “wha yu a seh”. There was never a time I called on Claude that he wasn’t there for my husband and I. Always so humble, always smiling, loving God always loving up on my dear friend Sonia and his family. Will miss you but I know without a shadow of a doubt that you are with our Father. So it’s not goodbye, it’s Au Revoir!

I still can't wrap my head around the loss of our dear friend Claude who has become so much more than a friend he was an extension of our family. Like Joan said earlier, she will always remember his laugh. It was that infectious laughter that drew you in causing you to laugh right along with him. He was kind and thoughtful, a true man of God. Claude, we will miss you something fierce, but our loss on earth is our Heavenly Father's gain and we all know that Claude is now in good hands. Sonia and family take comfort in all the lovely memories you have shared. Love always.

“ Deacon Claud, my heart is heavy right now but also rejoicing because I know he is sitting with our Heavenly Father praising and worshipping. I glad and honor that I had an opportunity to talk to him, learn from him, laugh with him but most importantly, praise and worship Christ our Lord together. You were inspiration to me. Watching you deal with your wife, sons, daughters and grandchildren was nothing but an illustration of how God loves us. Thank you for you have done for and my family. You will be missed but never forgotten. Love You.....

“ What I remember it about Deacon Claude was his quiet but strong presence. In the way he utilized his gifs and talents by being of great service in the church and the love he showed towards his wife and children was equally demonstrated from his wife and children towards him. He lead his family which such dignity and I am blessed and honored to know Deacon Claude. May God comfort his wife, children, grandchildren and great grands for during this time may the pouring of love from family and friends speak to the many hearts touched by Deacon Claude.

“ Deac. Claude was a true man of God. I remember talking about a light switch in our new home that wasn't working and he volunteered to come and look at it. He came, fixed it, and refused to let me pay him. He doubly blessed us as I enjoyed the wisdom that poured out of his mouth. RIP dear sir. You will be sorely missed. Praying for the family.
