

Cleon George Haynes

December 21, 1942 - July 6, 2025

In Loving Memory of Cleon George “Suspa” Haynes
December 21, 1942 – July 6, 2025

With hearts full of gratitude for a life well-lived, we celebrate the legacy of Cleon George “Suspa” Haynes, who passed away on July 6, 2025. Born in Manchester, Jamaica, Cleon was known for his artistic talent, generous spirit, and unwavering faith. A devoted husband, father, and servant of God, he built a life rooted in love, service, and spiritual purpose—first in Jamaica, and later in the United States.

Cleon was a skilled painter by trade and a spiritual leader by calling, founding a home-based church that became a source of hope and transformation for many. He was a man of integrity and humility, remembered for his selflessness, contagious laughter, and favorite phrase, “Not a prob!”

He is preceded in death by his beloved wife Adell and daughter Faith, and leaves behind a loving family and community who will continue to honor his enduring legacy. Cleon’s life was a reflection of steadfast faith, deep love, and joyful service. He now rests in the eternal peace of his Heavenly Father.

“ Uncle Suspa,

You were light, laughter, and love. Your kind face, ready smile, quick wit, infectious kindness, and constant willingness to help others will never be forgotten. Most of all, I'll remember your deep love for God.

Thank you for being a shining example of what truly matters—faith, family, and community—and for reminding us all to live each day striving to love a little more and serve a little better than the day before.

Love now and always.
