“ Our hearts hurts for your loss! Clifford Fields is my Grandmother, Bernice Coleman-McLaurin's 1st cousin and she was the oldest Coleman at that time until God carried her home on August 28, 2010. Monroe Coleman is their Grandfather and Raymond Coleman was her father. If it wasn't for his persistent in contacting my Grandmother, she wouldn't have known him, his brother and we wouldn't have met some of the family at the family reunion in Tulsa, OK in 2014. Mostly importantly, we, her children, grandchildren and everyone, we now know the history behind Monroe Coleman and met others from the Coleman family. In the short time, when he visited or called it was like my Grandmother, his brother and him always knew and loved each other, but they met about 4 years prior to her passing. Our family will continue to lift the family up in prayer and love! R.I.P Cousin Clifford! Love, Pamela Towns, Granddaughter of Bernice Coleman-McLaurin and all of our family! ❤️

Thank you much Cousin, for your prayers & love. My dad, Cliff was so happy to find your Mom, learn from her & share love with all of you. Please continue to keep my Uncle Prentice & family in your thoughts & prayers as well.

Jeretha McKinley - August 30, 2021 at 06:58 PM

He too was such a blessing to us along with your Uncle Prentice. We will definitely continue to lift you all up in prayer and love!

“ I'm Clifford's Son-in-Law Michael McKinley. Our family gives thanks to everyone for your heartfelt prayers, condolences, and words of comfort. Thank you also to Antioch-Lithonia MBC and Levett Funeral Home.

Clifford was the man I loved as a Father and he loved me as his son. Over the years, I learned a lot about him and so much from him. He was intelligent, strong, confident, and of course opinionated. He was handsome, stylish and so super cool that he could have been the Black James Bond. A charismatic role model who inspired the young and fascinated the old. As a Vice President with the Chicago City Colleges he advised and mentored many students to be successful in life. An accomplished, hard working educator who was all business. After a hard days work, he knew how to socialize, have fun, and be the life of the party!

Dad was so influential and successful that young men wanted to be like him. He was admired, idolized, and emulated but never duplicated. He was one of a kind. Dad was truly a mans man!

Most of all, Dad was a loving and devoted family man. His world revolved around his grandchildren, Ronald, Duane, and Denise, beautiful daughter Jeretha, myself, and loving soulmate of 67 years, wife Herreece.

Dad we love and miss you so much. We will always remember you as a very special part of our lives. Thank you for loving us. Your legacy lives on. Rest in Peace and Power!

“ It was a sad moment for me when I heard God called Clifford home!

Such a nice man! I remember when I was a member of Antioch, I would call him trouble! He would always come up with his wife and speak to me every time he saw me!, with a big grin on his face! He will be missed and never forgotten!

My deepest sympathies to his family! May God continue to bless you all.

I love you all!

“ I enjoyed so much my time with Clifford. He was a wonderful and generous person. While attending a convention in Atlanta I had a Heart attack that I am sure I may not have survived without the close support and attention of Cliff ,Herreece and Jere Fields. They were wonderful. After my stay in the hospital they attended to me in their home until I had fully recovered. They were lifesaving friends. With much love and appreciation.

“Cliff was a very close person in my life. We met at Purdue University when I was a freshman and he was a year ahead of me. He was a strong leader in bringing the new students to recognize that they had to be Alpha Phi Alpha members. I soon got to be very close to Cliff and Herreece. A relationship that grew stronger over the years. Cliff and I did all the things that close friends and brothers do.

Fortunately for me Cliff moved to Washington for a few years when he had a special opportunity to work on his passion at that time- Cooperative Education. When he returned to City Colleges in Chicago he became the country's leading advocate for using Co-Op programs to give students opportunities they may not have ever had. During his time in Washington Cliff and Herreece attended my wedding to Dora Jean Phillips and formed a relationship that we continue to cherish.

We loved to visit with the Fields both in Chicago and Atlanta. Dora Jean and I will miss him tremendously.

To Herreece and Jere-Although Cliff will not be here with us our loving relationship will always continue.

“ We are like leaves that fall from the tree, but the forest still endures. My cousin Clifford was part of a tree with many wonderful branches. My heart and my love go to Herreece and Jeri who shared his passion for family and excellence. We have made a contribution to the Student Freedom Initiative in Clifford's name so that he may continue to influence future generations.

Thank you so much Cousin Harold, Michael & Vivian for contributing to Cliff Fields legacy by donating to the Student Freedom Initiative. My Dad was an education advocate, especially for Black, non-traditional students. Your generous donations will help students attending HBCU's decrease their student debt, so that after graduation they can extend that same grace to others. Blessings, Fields & McKinley Family

“ I first met my cousin while I was attending Langston University in the late 70's. I was a member of the Chorus and had traveled to Chicago where I spent the night with Clifford and Herrece. Years later they had moved to Georgia as did I and we were 5 miles apart in Stone Mountain. I will cherish the family history lessons from Clifford. His research into our family tree is invaluable. I'm grateful that my brother Harold and I were able to share family history, laughs and good food together. This is a great loss to the Fields Clan. My condolences to Herrece and Jeretha. Rest well cousin.

“ When we both worked at City Colleges of Chicago in the 1990's, Clifford took me under his wing and instructed me on the transition from paralegal to attorney. My father had long since passed and Clifford gave me invaluable support and advice on the transition to a corporate culture. He opened his home in Chicago and later in Stone Mountain to my family and me and was instrumental in making sure my wedding day went smoothly, providing a sanctuary in his home before and after the wedding.

Clifford and Herrece have always supported and encouraged Anita and I, and we will forever be in the debt of this great couple.

Rest well, friend.

“ Mr. Fields leaves a big hole in this world with his passing. He was loving, strong, opinionated, and an embracer of new possibilities. As our informal Advisor, and through his daughter, he influenced the direction and mission of HealthConnect One - and made us smarter about moving our work forward. Jere, you are so much the child he wanted and needed, and you continue to bring his spirit of righteousness into the world. Mrs. Field and Family, I send you love in this time of your deep loss. May his memory continue to be a blessing in all of your lives. Blessed is the True Judge.

“I met Cliff as a freshman at Purdue University. We both stayed in Carey Hall as freshmen. We became brothers, friends, and he an advisor. The relationship began in 1953. We have been close ever since. Cliff is my son's Godfather and he and his families adopted my mother when when my dad passed. We've travelled together and enjoyed major events together. One special event was his dad's 100th birthday in Oklahoma. Cliff was always a neat and stylish person. He had a broad selection of ties. As brothers there is little we did not share. He was an older big brother to me who I loved and will miss.
