

Clyde Everett Johnson Jr.

August 13, 1937 - December 15, 2020

On August 13, 1937, the sun arose and welcomed Clyde Everett Johnson to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde & Virginia Johnson of Buford, GA.

On December 15, 2020 as the sun was setting, Clyde whispered to his loving wife Betty, "I Love You" as he ascended to his heavenly Father. His illness was sudden and he will be truly missed.

Clyde is preceded in death by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson, Sr.; brothers, Leon (Beatrice) Johnson, William (Marie) Johnson, and Leonard (Beverly) Johnson. Clyde loved the Lord, he was raised and joined Poplar Hill Baptist Church at an early age. Clyde loved his church, Pastor Headd, and his church family. Clyde was a dedicated and faithful servant.

Clyde graduated from Buford Color School, soon after that he joined the United States Air Force. He was stationed in Sanitone, Texas and Biloxi, Mississippi where he received his Honorable Discharge. Clyde worked at General Motors for 40 years on the assembly line, serving as the Chairman of Civil Rights Committee-via Washington, D.C. He also served at the Record Secretary for Retirees until his death. While doing this, Clyde earned his welding and craftsmanship certificate at Lanier Technical School.

Clyde leaves to cherish his loving memories, wife, Betty of 59 loving and adventurous years; daughter, Deborah Adams Johnson of Buford, GA; special son, Willie Estes of Decatur, GA; sister, Mrs. Robbie Blakely of Winder, GA; brothers, Clarence (Gloria) Johnson, Sr., James "Jimmy" L. (Delores) Johnson, Lionel (Shirley) Johnson; sisters-in-law, Beatrice Johnson of Buford,

GA, Beverly Johnson of Jefferson, GA, Joyce and Dan Wood of Stone Mountain, GA, Brenda Varnar of Athens, GA, Elaine Jordon of Lithonia, GA; very special friend, Mr. Claude Whelchel; special niece, Miss Tamika Johnson, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

Betty and the Johnson Family,

We want you to know that your New York Family send our Sincere Condolences.

We are so sorry to hear Clyde passed. We know there are no words to relieve the family's pain and grief that the death of our beloved Clyde brings. Our heartfelt thoughts and prayers go out to you. We know you will cherish his memory and the joy he brought to our lives. May you gain strength and understanding as the loving memories of his life continue to shine through you and the family.

Be Blessed,

Andrea, Yolanda, and your New York Cousins

“ All that knew this wonderful man are hurting. Clyde was a great human being he was a fighter for Human and Civil Rights. But during the fight he carried out his fight in a Christian manner. He served UAW Local 10 (General Motors) as Civil Rights Chairman for years helping make change for the betterment of all workers. Mrs Betty over 5,000 UAW retirees are lifting you and the family up in our prayers.
May our brother RIP and Rise in Glory
