“ I am saddened to learn that Clytimis passed several years ago. She and I were the same age and used to wrote each other when we were 13. I remember a phone conversation with Clytimis and called her my cousin and she corrected me, telling me she was my aunt.

I searched for Clytimis a few times over the years but never connected. I decided to search today because her aunt Mabel Fambro, my uncle Herman's mother, passed last week at age 105. I offer late but sincere condolences

“ My Auntie showed everyone she knew what strength looks like, what it really takes to hold on---when the doctors said there was nothing else that could be done--her faith in God stepped in and baffled modern medicine---She Survived the odds---I love you and I will truly miss you---you kept things going...

Sincerely, Victoria Hall (Vicky)
