“ My family and I are sorry for your loss and we offer heartfelt condolences. May God's loving provision to restore our dead loved ones to life comfort and strengthen you during this difficult time and in the days ahead. God's Word assures us that The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28, 29). We can put full confidence in God's promises because he always fulfills them! Not one word of his has failed. (Joshua 23:14) God invites you to Draw close to him and he will draw close to you. (James 4:8)

“ I woke up this morning feeling exhausted after if felt like I had been having an ongoing dream all night about looking through shoeboxes for CD's with Gospale Regge that I knew Colin would like to bring to Colin's celebration of life. Sadly I wasn't able to make it there but I wanted to say I will miss the bear hugs and I love you aunt Gaylhia I was sure to get when I saw Colin, Jr. The last time I got 2 hugs because I gave him a T-shirt with his favorite thing on the front a fish being caught!When I was feeding granny in the hospital today, she is just coming off of some of the drugs that had been making her extremely drowsy for the first 4 days of this week so she is just coming to the full realization of what Colin, Sr. told her on the phone a few nights ago. Her eyes welled up with tears I asked her what would she like to say and she said I want them to know that I am so sorry that happend to Little Colin, I loved him that was my first grandson, I am so sorry and I would like to have been there but I can't and I am praying that God would uphold them and strengthen them, Love from Granny
