“ Corlette was one of the people that I could look back on in school and smile. She was a very special friend who always treated me with kindness and respect. I was glad to reconnect with her at a meeting with a few other classmates last year. I am sorry that she had to leave, but I know God loves beautiful flowers too. Family, please accept my condolences and love.

“ I struggle with my goodbye, so I will say see you later. You were more than my manager, you were a great friend and mentor. It's hard going to work and sitting across from your desk and not seeing you pop from around the corner or smelling your morning coffee. I haven't been able to turn off your radio. It brings me comfort. Gilmer and O'Neal family, Corlette is one of a kind and we were blessed to have had her in our lives. Love you Corlette.

“ My dear friend, this is a hard one. I am still trying to wrap my brain around it. We text each other if not every day, every other day. We text each other on Thursday. Friday morning I text you to say Good morning. I didn't know you had received your heavenly wings. You were a true lady of GOD. You loved GOD and didn't care who knew it. I will cherish our talks, texts and visits at DCSS conferences and meetings. I thank GOD for allowing us to cross paths and become not only co-workers but true friends/sisters. I miss you already. To her family, her husband and son who she talked about often and who she loved so very much; I pray knowing that she is now with GOD will give you peace in the days to come. Remember, to be absent from the body is to be present with the LORD. My friend, I know you are enjoying being at the feet of Jesus.

“ I’ve marinated on posting for lil bit....because how to summarize what Ms Corlette’s beautiful soul means to you?!

She undoubtedly became my surrogate mother in GA. As unforeseen events in life can make a person feel low, confused or in the dark...she always carried the light and appeared at the right time! As if she had that sixth sense 😊.

It feels unreal as we were just recently planning a lunch date. Best words- I’m bless to have had the physical you in my life. I will continue to carry-out the positivity that you exuded, lift others because that’s the best way I know to memorialize you. With much love 💕

“ Ms. C.,

To hear of your transition on yesterday was truly shocking. There are many fond memories of you I'll forever hold though none comparable to the Christian guidance you imparted into me as a young leader. Though you've entered eternal rest and have suffered the inevitable that we all must some day, I pray that your family finds peace and solace in understanding that the glory of being in God's presence is truly the beginning of eternal life and that death of the flesh is conquered by the eternal promise of life through Christ. I pray that God allows you to freely travel the heavens as much as you enjoyed traveling here on Earth. I know you are smiling hard, dancing, and glorifying our King! You've completed your race in this life, now stand in confidence before our father to receive your crown. To your husband, son, and all others deeply mourning your departure, know that this is not her goodbye but a "see you later". We will miss you Ms. C.
