“ To Tommy’s whole family, you are in my thoughts and prayers. I met Tommy’s mom over 30 years ago. One of the kindest, sweetest ladies I have ever met. An absolutely wonderful person. Tommy and I have had a lot of conversations over the years and what I know for certain is that she was loved. I know, without question, that she was an incredible mom, as she gave us Tommy, one of my closest and best friends. I love you brother and know that you are in mine and Nanci’s prayers. Although the world was a better place with your mom in it, she herself is now in a better place; and as it is said – “right where God wants her to be”. Jimmy
