“ *Corri and I worked together for a few years, and she was so funny, helpful and full of love. It was a total shock to hear the news of her passing, but I do know Corri has a special spot in heaven. My prayer and thoughts are with the family of this young beautiful soul.
Love and condolences,

“ We all know that Corri will join her special friend Jason in the house of the Lord he called both of them young to heaven to bring joy to all of their fellow angels who watch over us.

A Poem by Andrew Geist

“When I come to the end of the road.

And the Sun has set for me,

I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,

Why cry for a soul set free,

Miss me a little – but not for long.

For this is a journey we must all take. It’s all a part of the master’s plan,

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,

Go to the friends here present that we know.”

Finally, let us all join in and celebrate her time on this earth and bid her a loving farewell, and as we say in the Navy, fair winds and following seas Corriana Nicole Ashmeade.

“ I worked with Corriana for many years. Although I was much older, she taught me many things. She called me Grandma D... and I truly loved her. She was a wonderful mother, I would hear her on the phone with Aleya after school. She asked me why did kids like to squirt toothpaste on the wall. She also taught me it is just as easy to hang your jacket in the closet as it is to throw it on the chair. I was told that she remembered my words, don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today. Now her time with us is over and my heart and prayers go out to her daughter and her dear mother.

With my deepest sympathy,
