“Dear Williams Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous “ May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

“ Walter,

I was saddened to hear of Corrine's passing. She was such a beautiful soul--- a beautiful person, both inside and out, and I will certainly miss her. I will definitely think of her whenever I bake a sweet potato pie using the recipe she gave me a few years ago. She shared with me her "secret ingredient." I won't say my pies are as good as hers, but they are pretty darn good, if I do say so myself!

I can see Corrine now, in her white robe and angel wings organizing things in Heaven!

She's singing, dancing--- and making those delicious sweet potato pies? She and Darrell will be waiting to see you, the rest of the family, and her many, many friends. I feel blessed to have known her, and know she's okay.

I pray you and Renee will find comfort in knowing you were blessed to have had Corrine in your lives. God Bless You!
