“ To the Family,

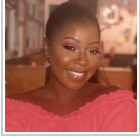

It is the little things, the small, everyday occurrences that you will remember. The laughs, the stories, the smiles. And even though it seems like you can never recover from your loss, it is these very memories of Courtney that will help push the pain away and bring back the smiles.

I am so sorry for your loss and pray that your faith will help you through this very difficult time. I pray that you will find the strength to get you through your grief and sadness.

“ To the family: I am so sorry for your loss. Courtney was such a blessing to me. She was extremely caring, ambitious, and fun! :) You all definitely have a wonderful angel watching over you now. I thank God for allowing her to Grace my life with her presence.

I met Courtney at our Alma Mater, Alcorn State University. She was such a sweet person. When I moved to Atlanta, I contacted Court as she was the only person I knew in Georgia. Courtney took me around, introduced me to her friends, and made sure that I was comfortable in my new city. She even invited me to a girls day with her friends where we cooked an Italian meal! :) She was such a wonderful person, and so full of life!!! She had so many plans and was just a breath of fresh air! I absolutely adored Court. We had so much fun, and we made sure to also accomplish our goals. I will truly miss her radiant and motivating spirit. Love you, Court! 🥰

“ TO Gregory, Coletha, & Gregory Jr.

Great is God's faithfulness. He puts no more on us than we can bear. My prayers go out to you and family during the loss of your daughter and sister. During the years at Decatur S.D.A., I recall her as a little girl, over 17 years ago..the last time I saw her. How the years go by so quickly. Please remain faithful to God...Jesus is coming soon.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Courtney's family. Courtney made an everlasting impression on me and my wife upon first meeting her at Caletha and DeWayne's wedding. We took to her like family, and commented to each other that we pray our daughters will grow up and be just like her one day. Smart, strong, confident and full of personality are what we remember from meeting Courtney. We will miss you, but your memory will last forever.
