“Lynwood has always been the sweetest man I have ever known. I remember when he use to talk to his brother about what he was currently feeling for me or didn't understand at the time while we was both stationed in Ramstein GE. In Germany we was unbreakable, and it doesn't matter what issue that arouse we was always able to push forth and work through everything. Even after the military we still stayed in touch talking about various of situation....we laughed and shared our jokes. Although, we took different routes in life we always shared a true connection. It hurts because you have always been there through my many struggles or issues and you never once passed any judgments. (A true listener) and I feel sadden because I couldn't return the favor or extent my hand to you for the first time. I knew it was something wrong because I had a dream about you and I went to my job it was dude that look just like you, but then today April 3, 2014 I found out you passed away. This horrible pain that I feel will never go away.....As I told you before you was always the perfect gentle, a true friend, my ex, and my Morris Chestnut.....lol. You didn't look like him but you were as equally handsome. I always held a special place in my heart for you. Take Care Lynwood L. Croxton aka Wood. Love you sweetie!! Good bye!!

I'm still broken and in tears.....you are one in a million!! To the family and truly sorry for your lost.

“ A MAN NAMED JOB ASKED LONG AGO "IF A MAN DIES SHALL HE LIVE AGAIN" JOB 14:4. THE BIBLE MAKES IT CLEAR WITH A PROMISE "YOUR DEAD ONES WILL LIVE... THEY WILL RISE UP" JOHN 5:28,29 AND ACTS 24:5 [THE HOPE OF A RESURRECTION]. WHEN YOU FEEL UP TO IT PLEASE READ THESE SCRIPTURES. YOU HAVE MY DEEPEST SYMPATHY, LILLIAN, STONE MOUNTAIN, GA.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mr. Croxton Lynwood. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ In the past few years Lynwood became one of my best friends, my "big" little brother. Always there to lend an ear, or a helping hand, or a smile...to keep me sane when the world around was anything but. Although my heart is heavy I will remember him with joy for the wonderful, positive person he was. I never had a chance to meet the family but I feel like I know you all from his stories. My sincerest condolences and prayers go out for you to be comforted.

Those who live in the Lord never see each other for the last time.
Rest in Peace until we meet again my friend - Love always, "Z" -

“ I offer sincere condolences and Scriptural comfort to the family and friends of Mr. Lynwood. When loved ones fall asleep in death, we can rely on God's loving resurrection provision to gain hope and comfort because "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). God's Word assures us: "Your dead ones will live....They will rise up." (Isaiah 26:19). When Jesus was on the earth, God empowered him to raise up dead ones. This provision will be applied on a global scale when "All those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Revelation 21:3-5)

“ Although I don't know your family personally I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. Loosing someone we love is one of the hardest things we will deal with in life. However, many have found comfort by looking into Gods word the Bible. The Bible assures us of a time in the near future when Gods Kingdom mentioned at Matthew 6:10 will rule over mankind. (Daniel 2:44) Under that Kingdom "no resident will say I am sick". (Isaiah 33:24) There will be no more death. (Revelation 21:3,4) The loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29, Acts 24:15) We will live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace.(Psalms 37:11) May our Heavenly Father Jehovah,(Psalms 83:18) the God of peace grant you the mental peace and comfort needed at this difficult time. Meditate on Gods word the Bible ,and draw close to our Heavenly Father. (James 4:8) May you be comforted by family and friends,and your loving memories until these promises are fulfilled.

“ Please accept our families sincerest condolences in the loss of your loved one Psalms 147:3 says " The Heals the brokenhearted ones & he binds up their wounds ." We need comfort in many areas of life one of the greatest causes of grief is the loss of the loved one in death, especially a beloved marriage mate or a child.. In times of distress we may need comfort that soothes our heart, mind, emotions, and both our physical and spiritual health ... Gods word acknowledges that our heart can be broken & crushed. Psalms 51:17. Even in serve situations God can bring relief to a stricken heart if we pray to him in full faith.
