“ Crystal you were and always will remain my first best friend. I remember when we first met at school in 3rd grade, I was the new kid and being bullied and you stepped in like angel to protect me. The times we had growing up never left my mind. Even though we lost contact through our busy adult lives I always think back to us being kids growing into teenagers and the fun we had. We were so silly crazy fun together and there was never a dull moment. I can remember us making up silly songs, prank calling our friends, the girl groups we made up (P Triple T and Très L.A. Girlz) we thought we were going to be the next En Vogue back in the 90's. There was so much I never got to say to you before we went our separate ways. I still remember the song we made up when we were 10&11 word for word. I can't express how much you meant to me and the impact you had on me but just know I admired and respected you tremendously. There will always be love and fond funny memories in my heart for you, my childhood buddy. I miss you with everything in my soul,

Love

“ You will forever be my favorite cousin. You were the first, and at this point only, biological family I’ve met in person. We had some of the best conversations for HOURS. I love you Crystal and hope you look down on Zia with pride. Zia, you’re a strong woman and you have a village around you, all you have to do is reach out and if I can help I will. Prayers for you and the rest of the family.
