“ I was so saddened to hear about Duck passing. I celebrate the life of Duck and am mourning him with you in this trying time. I'll remember Duck in many positive ways-with a big smile and a great sense of humor. As a friend of Alain's I remember Duck always coming downstairs in the basement pretending to be Elvis Presley. Always making me laugh. I hope that all the great moments that you were able to have with him before he passed away brings you comfort. Please know that you're in my thoughts and prayers. My sincerest condolences for an incredibly great loss. I'll never forget Duck.

“ Curry, was a brother to me as well.

We did business together for about 20 years. As I move around Conyers/Covington and even look at shoes in my closet, I think of Duck. So many fond memories and a laugh you would never forget. Even when he was down he found something to laugh about.

This was painful and he will be missed. Just a genuinely nice guy.

“ Curry Love and i were like brothers. We raised families together, we built house together and we always stressed that taking of our families and friends is most important in life. I will miss my friend. But I have the happy memories to keep him alive in spirit. I will continue to reach out to his family and support them as i know that he would do same for me. Much love brother...rest in peace,,,

“ We have so many special memories of Curry, who we fondly called "Duck". We will miss his special phone calls to just say hello. We loved him and he was family to us. We send our heart felt sympathy to his wife, son, parents and sister and all other family members who we know loved him. It is our hope that his memories will remain in all our hearts.

He was always warm and respectful. Accommodating and polite. Even as a young teen he was filled with curiosity. I saw him in grocery stores and service stations in Covington. When I called him Duck, we both laughed bc he knew that I had been around him for a long time to still call him that name. Resting and at peace he is. Curry will be truly missed by many . Prayers to his loved ones.

“ Curry Anthony "Duck" Love was my very special friend. We met over 20 years ago, and his charm, kindness, sincerity, strength, and love and respect for me captured my heart and initiated a bond that I will always remember. He was truly a gentleman and loved his family and friends. The last time I saw my friend was in August - we had dinner and talked about family, love and life. We shared a lot of laughs, and truly enjoyed our time together. My condolences and prayers to Curry's family. I know this is a difficult time for you. Know that he loved you all - he always had this glow when he talked about his son, sister, dad, and mother. Until we meet again my friend, know that my memories of you and our friendship keep me strong. Luv ya thru eternity... -Tishangi
