Curtis Roussaw was born in Atlanta, GA on September 4th, 1978, to George and Deloris Roussaw. He was welcomed and dearly loved by George and Deloris. He was also welcomed by his older brother, George, and older sister, Kellonye, and he was later joined by his younger sister April.

As a child, Curtis was very fun-loving. Some of his favorite things to do were playing with his friends, spending time with and wrestling his brother, and at times terrorizing his sisters by having his army of GI Joes and Transformers go into battle with their Barbies. Curtis was so much fun, there was never a dull moment.

Growing up, Curtis loved and spent a lot of time with his father and brother. He spent much time learning from them how to do things. At times they were inseparable. Curtis also loved and enjoyed spending time with his mother. He was always so loving and protective of his mother and sisters. In childhood, one of the things he enjoyed most was his mother reading him stories at bedtime. He loved his family very much. For Curtis, nothing mattered more than family.

Curtis enjoyed traveling. He enjoyed trips that he went on with his family as a child. His love of trips turned into a lifelong love of traveling. As an adult, he spent much of his time traveling with family and friends enjoying new experiences. He always dreamed of one day living abroad.

Curtis was warm and loving. He had a gift of always making everyone feel loved and welcomed. He never met a stranger, always making everyone feel comfortable and welcome. He would always make time for those that needed him.

Curtis attended D.H. Stanton Elementary, M.L.King Middle, and Southside High School. He graduated from Hertzing College. He had an impressive working career with AT&T and Bellsouth for 23 years where he grew in his career and developed lifelong friendships. He studied from youth and was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses. He served at the Kingdom Hall in Newnan, GA as a Watchtower reader. He served on the Regional Building Committee helping to repair damaged Kingdom Halls for many years. This served as Curtis' spiritual foundation and also where he developed many of his lifelong friendships. He always helped his parents when in need, doing repairs to their home, vehicle and taking care of their yard, always making it a priority to help.

One of Curtis' greatest joys was becoming a father. When he became a father, his world lit up. He made it his point to always strive to be the best father he could be. He fell in love with and married Marie in July of 2022. It was important for him to be the best father and husband to his family. He was very hardworking, always doing good for others.

Curtis passed away on November 26th, 2023, at the age of 45. He was preceded in death by his father, George Roussaw Sr., Uncles Everett Roussaw, Albert Roussaw (Angie), Larry Mitchell (Grace), Aunt, Sandra Aldrige (Melvin).

Curtis is survived by his spouse: Marie Roussaw, son, Carter Robinson, step-sons Ochieng Kargbo and Isaiah Latrell, mother, Deloris Roussaw, three siblings, George Roussaw Jr.(Normandy), Kellonye Torregano (Marlon), and April Torregano (Desmond), Aunts, Lois White (Mike), and Rosa Mae Blunt (Albert) and Carolyn Mitchell Couch(Hasty), Uncles, David Roussaw (Mattie), Harold Roussaw (Sally), Spencer Roussaw (Sheila), Leonard Roussaw and Carl Mitchell, Nieces and Nephews, George Roussaw III, Nichole Roussaw, Nichelle Roussaw, Desmond Torregano Jr., McKaylen Torregano, Laila Torregano, Jian Torregano, Ian Amimo, and Christian Amimo, extended family, Linda Roussaw, Teresa Roussaw and a host of cousins and close relatives and friends.

Curtis was very loving and kind, always making sure that everyone was cared for. If there was a problem he would find a solution, all while cracking you up along the way. You could never remain sad while talking to him. To know Curtis was to love Curtis. Curtis was very faithful.

He will be deeply missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him, and the love he shared with us will continue in our memories and hearts.

“ Marie, Deloris and family. Words cannot express how saddened I was to hear of the passing of your husband, son, brother, etc. Death is truly mankind's #1 enemy. You have beautiful memories, cherish them, as I know you will. you shared how he loved life. Talk, smile and laugh of him often. In time, the memories of his kindness and joys will ease your pain. With love, Ramona Bryant

“ Im lost for word. I cant believe that my brother is gone. Curtis was more than a friend he was my brother, he was always there when i needed an advice or some one to talk to. Curtis was always so giving and was always willing to help anybody even if he didnt know you. My brother im going to miss you so much and is even hard to think that you are gone. Rest in peace and continue to look after us from heaven.

“ Im still processing the loss of my friend. A true friend is someone you count on day or night. Regardless of the issue or circumstance Curtis would help with hesitation. Curtis was that dude. I will truly miss our conversations which were sometime serious but mostly full of jokes and laughter. Curtis has truly left a void. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ Curtis I did not get a chance to know you longer, but the short years that I came to know you, I got to know how you were full of life, how you literally wanted to move mountains, how you did not hesitate in life, you took life head on. Now, you are being missed and will be missed. You left a space in our hearts that will never be filled, but I pray to God that you may rest easy and peacefully.
