“Nicks, my deepest condolences . I'm still at a loss for words and in shock since hearing the heartbreaking news. It's a reminder of just how fragile life is.

Even though time, distance, and space have separated us in adulthood, I carry vivid memories of Aunt Cynthia that feel as if they were just yesterday. I know she's technically my cousin, but in my heart, she's always been Aunt Cynthia. Her warm smile, genuine love, and God-fearing spirit left a lasting impression on me as a child. As I type this, I can still see her exact smile, hear her laughter, and feel the love she radiated.

She was a woman of faith, positivity, honesty, and an abundance of love and care. Her devotion as a mother to you and Sean was clear, and that same bright, loving, and resilient spirit shines in both of you.

Though this chapter has ended, her story continues through you and the countless lives she touched. As the saying goes, "To live in the hearts and minds of those we love is to never die." Her legacy of love and light will always live on.
