“ The last time I saw Cynthia was during this past springbreak in PCB. She still had that beautiful smile and quick wit. She was a beautiful spirit who would "tell it like it was" and I loved that frankness about her. She was genuine in all of her dealings, and just a wonderful lady. She will be missed by all. To Donald, Trey and Alexis, one of my last phone conversations with her centered around making sure you, her family, would be ok when she was gone; she loved you all so much. Please accept condolences from our family; you are in our thoughts and prayers.

To my Loving Cheer Sister Cynthia, you will always be remembered for your charismatic smile and uplifting comments. You were a real trooper to the very end. But this is not the end. From God we come, to God we must return. This is the beginning of your time to be with God. May God Grant you eternal peace and blessings. You remain special in my heart forever. You are my sister, my friend.

*Wow – how those childhood memories come to mind
Family all gathered at Grandma’s house after church.
Cousins playing in the yard, grown-ups on the porch, Grandma’s cooking,
Surrounded by LOVE and laughter – Family at its best.
Those were some beautiful times – so many years ago
FAITH is the foundation in which in which we were raised
Love of God, family, friends and neighbors – Oh those cherished days.
Love is forever and family is to, rest on Dear Cynthia
You’ll forever live in our hearts.*

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for Cynthia's death. Loosing a family member and friend can be very hard to bear. Please take comfort in God's promise that soon he "will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Revelation 21:4

My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. Words cannot even begin to express the loss of a beautiful yet energetic and free willed spirit. What's coming for her life now, is better than what's been. I love you all!

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ To the family of Cynthia Butler:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ (sighing)...What can one say at a time such as this? I will reflect on my memories of her...she was always a quiet girl, we went to school together in Huntsville. She minded her business and was smart and driven. I have not seen her since high school, but there's always a connection with your classmates no matter the case. I send my love, prayers and best wishes to you all. God is with you...sometimes we may not feel His presence, because the pain is so immediate and vast, but let me assure you, He's there. She's away...never gone, so it's not goodbye, it's see you later.

“ May your family draw comfort and strength during your greatest time of need from the wonderful promises given to us by our very loving Creator Jehovah God. John 5:28,29 & Revelation 21:4,5 he promises to bring your loved one back to life in the resurrection right here on earth and do away with all sickness, suffering and death forever.
