

Cynthia Perry

January 17, 1955 - December 7, 2022

Cynthia Delores Dixon Perry was born Monday, January 17, 1955 at Jasper Memorial Hospital in Monticello, Georgia. She was the first-born child of the late Walter Lee Dixon Sr. and the late Thelma Roberts Dixon. Although Cynthia was the oldest of the two children in the marriage, there are other siblings that she loved and cared for deeply. She spent her early years in Jackson, Ga. and Homestead, Fl. where she developed her love of the beach.

Cynthia's life was full of so many accomplishments and achievements. Cynthia received her Bachelor of Science degree in Public and Urban Affairs from Georgia State University in 1987. She proudly served her country as a member of the Army from 1974- 1979 as an SP5- E5, she diligently served the State of Georgia and her community as a Child Support Agent until she retired in April of 2016. If you knew Minister Cynthia Perry, you know that her proudest accomplishment was being a loyal and faithful servant of the Lord. She gave her life to the Lord while living in Dallas Texas in 1980 and committed her life to serving the Lord ever since.

Cynthia leaves to cherish her memory: a loving son and daughter; Derrick Van Ness (Elaine) Little and Brandy Nicole Murray, a brother and sister; Oscar L Dixon and Shirley A. Sanchez, grandchildren; Quenethia Shante Harris, Silken Faith Little, Javaris Cortez Little, Marcellus Akinlulu Fatade, and Marcus Akinwumi Harvey, great-grandchildren, and a host of family and friends

“ As a former coworker I always admired Minister Perry’s knowledge of GOD’S word and how she did not entertain gossiping or talking about people but will give you the word all day long. Only good memories of her. To the family sorry for your loss. Thank you Ms. Perry for our many conversations love always Catherine Smith!
