*Hey. Thank you for being my friend. Thank you for sharing your time with me when I needed to talk. You made me feel welcomed and wanted. You made me be okay with who I am. You ambitious and untamed-able attitude was the first reason I started to like you. While we got to sit and hang out more, I found a good person who I can really consider a friend. You mean so much to me and I want you to know that I care about you and am glad to have had the chance to sit by your side. May God, as I understand him, be with you while you are with us. Thank you for everything. Your friend,

“ To the Davidson family,

I wish you peace, healing and understanding of this huge loss.

When Great Trees Fall
Maya Angelou

When great trees fall,
rocks on distant hills shudder,
lions hunker down
in tall grasses,
and even elephants
lumber after safety.

When great trees fall
in forests,
small things recoil into silence,
their senses
eroded beyond fear.

When great souls die, the air around us becomes light, rare, sterile.
We breathe, briefly.
Our eyes, briefly,
see with a hurtful clarity.
Our memory, suddenly sharpened,
examines,
gnaws on kind words
unsaid,
promised walks
never taken.

Great souls die and our reality, bound to *them, takes leave of us.

Our souls,
dependent upon their
nurture,
now shrink, wizened.
Our minds, formed
and informed by their radiance, fall away.
We are not so much maddened as reduced to the unutterable ignorance of dark, cold caves.*

*And when great souls die, after a period peace blooms, slowly and always irregularly. Spaces fill with a kind of soothing electric vibration.
Our senses, restored, never to be the same, whisper to us.
They existed. They existed.
We can be. Be and be better. For they existed.*

“ The aura of a angel with a smile that would light anyone's heart aglow, a consistent calm and cool temperament, my mother use to often say ( if there no good words let there be no words) Paige personified that better than anyone, I always admired the way she carried herself. God forgive my baby of any and all sin and embrace her please.

“ I cherish memories of a long, loving relationship with Paige’s grandmother Lucille, all of her children for more than 60 years. Getting to know Paige, was a continuation of a lifelong relationship. My most recent memory of Paige is that of a young woman with a dream to work in the film industry. She was focused on realizing her dream and did not seek approval or confirmation from others. Her determination and “I CAN do this” attitude was refreshing and inspirational too. We will miss her spunky spirit. My prayer is for peace for her family and comfort in recalling their time with Paige. Love, Sis. Sara Ann Higdon/Rochester, NY)

“ My condolences to the family, in memory. Those we love remain with us, for love overflows on. Cherished memories never fade, because one loved is gone. Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, for as long as there's a memory, they love on in our heart.

“Paige, you will always be the light of my life. My heart is completely torn, and the only thing bringing me peace is knowing that you are no longer suffering. Our last conversations centered heavily around your belief that you were sent here not to achieve the happiness of your own, but instead to shed light and help others. You've exceeded that goal a million times over.

You've truly changed my life, Paige. You've given me gifts that are invaluable, and they will never be forgotten nor taken for granted. I'm still struggling to understand and accept that you played a pivotal role in saving my life, yet I could not save yours. That seems cruel to me. I'll never be able to thank you enough. I promise to carry your legacy and fulfill the dreams that you had yet to accomplish.

You knew how special you were to me, and you continuously pushed me towards becoming the woman that you always knew I could be. In our final days together, I pushed you towards achieving the life and recovery that I always knew you could achieve. You did that. I keep replaying when I dropped you off Saturday night. One of the last things you said to me was "Maybe this is it. Maybe this is all I'm meant to be." I keep asking myself if I should have known. You repeatedly told me goodbye in so many ways. I thank you for that, and I apologize for selfishly not wanting to accept a life without you in it.

Dafaan Paige-Marie Davidson, you are a true angel. I know with all of my heart that you are happy. I know that you are at peace. I know that you are free. You can fly high and know that you've touched the lives of everyone you've encountered. You've achieved forms of love that some never achieve in an entire lifetime, and we're all so grateful for that. I will love you for the rest of my life. I'll never forget the impact that you've had, and I'll always cherish you. The next tattoo you were getting? I'm getting it this week.

*I love you, best friend. You'll forever mean the world to me.
Love your lady bug-bumble bee,

“ To the Davidson family I can't imagine what you are going through and I am deeply saddened by your loss. Dafaan(Paigee) was one of my closest friends when I lived in Dacula. She made our long bus ride to school bearable and just knowing she was there made my day better. Paige had the most amazing spirit and knew how to brighten your day. She said some of the funniest things. Paige was one of those people that you can never forget... She stood out. She was authentic and you don't find that much these days that's rare. I will be keeping you all in my prayers.
