“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Daiquirian Reed. No matter who we are losing a loved one in death is painful. The pain, grief and feelings of helplessness can be unbearable. At 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 the Almighty God invites us to look to him for comfort and the strength to endure difficult times. May you find the peace and solace in Him and your fond memories of Daiquirian. If you would like to learn more about God's wonderful promises, visit jw.org. “ It's difficult to grasp the thought of not seeing Nicole's beautiful smile at Hanover, as I have had the pleasure and honor to see this since 2003. There are several things that I loved about her that I will never forget - a great sense of humor, her warm spirit and she always kept everything real. She will be missed dearly, but i'll always treasure our moments we shared together. R.I.P. Jan Ragsdale

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. I know that the loss of a love one brings much grief and agony. Thanks to our loving Heavenly Father we can find much comfort in his word the Bible. Our Heavenly Father gives us the promise of a resurrection (John 5:28, 29 Acts 24:15) and the end of death and suffering. (Revelation 21:3, 4) Getting to know the true God and his son Jesus, assures us all eternal life. (John 17:3) I can tell that Ms. Daiquirian Nicole Reed was very loved. “ Where do I start? From Parc Chateau, to our days at Cracker Barrel, spring break in Daytona, the party of all parties... In 25 years of friendship, the memories are endless, but what I remember most of all is your laugh, your smile & your beautiful spirit. I miss you more than words could ever say. I love you so much! You're the best friend, roommate, cousin I could ever wish for. I love you & will forever miss you. I am blessed to have had you in my life. Thank you for your friendship & for EVERY time you came through for me, for all the laughs & most of all the memories. We grew up together & were supposed to grow old together, living out our days like the Golden Girls. Rest, sweet Colee. Rest

“ *Nicole was such a sweet and special person inside and out. Her smile was infectious and a heart of gold. On behalf of the Atlanta Braves organization, we will miss her tremendously on the Guest Relations Gate. Even though she was with us for a short period of time, she made a big impact. “ *I have worked with Nicole since she started at The Hanover many years ago. She has always been held in high regard for the caliber of her work but also for the manner in which she interacted with people. She managed to stay calm and friendly, when others may have already reached a boiling point. It was impossible not to become friends with Nicole because her smile and sense of humor just pulled you in and endeared you to her. It was a high point of my day to pass her in the hall or the breakroom and hear her quick recap on how she was doing that day. Even if she may not have been having a particularly great day, she certainly didn't appear to let it bother her and we always shared a good laugh. I will miss her and the special something that she most certainly possessed. Gone but definitely not forgotten. RIP sweet Nicole. We will miss you.*Billy Smith - Coworker and Friend/ Hanover Insurance Group
