“ Dear Forrest, Hazel, Johnny and Bettye Jean, Thank you for sharing your mother with me for the first 19 years of my life. I was fortunate to have your mother as one of my mothers too. Daisy taught me life lessons and imparted wisdom to me in regular doses. She always warned me to watch out for snakes as she sent me out to pick blackberries. I was willing to take the chance because the cobbler would be worth it. She was the best pastry chef in the world. She taught me to iron by telling me to iron my own shirts. In short, she treated me like one of her children, and I will be eternally grateful. She protected me from harm when it showed it's face. I loved her, and I am saddened by her passing. I will always cherish the wonderful memories I have of her.

Love to you all,

Margaret Smith Tyrrell

“ My condolences in the loss of your dear loved one. When our loved ones die it pains our hearts. Our loving God Jehovah is aware of this and he comforts us by means of his word the Bible. Psalm 68:20 says; The true God is for us a God who saves; And Jehovah the Sovereign Lord provides escape from death. Also 1 Peter 5:7 says : While you throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. May these scriptures bring comfort and calmness of heart to you at this time of bereavement.

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. God promises: "Your dead will live.... They will rise up." (Isaiah 26:19). Jesus confirmed his role in the resurrection when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God is faithful...
