“ To the McClendon family, our dear across the street neighbors, we mourn with you and trust God's grace to overly-shower you with Peace that passes man's understanding. We lift you up with our daily prayers and trust God for that everlasting Peace. May the precious memories of your sweet child give you comfort when skies are gray, and laughter when skies are blue. To God be glory forever and ever. We love you.

“ To the McClendon and Beaufort families. I was so sorry to hear about D.J. It seemed like yesterday when I taught him in Sunday school at Sts. Peter and Paul. He was such a sweet boy. May God hold him in his everlasting arms. Sending you love and strength as you navigate this heavy loss. Please know I am here if you need to talk. Love, Dr. Jeana

My heartfelt sympathy to the families. DJ worked with me in the pantry at Sts. Peter and Paul. He was so quiet, always respectful and just a pleasure to be around. May you find strength in Jesus, and prayers from friends as a comfort in this trying time. God is with you today. He will be with you tomorrow. Peace , from Theresa Ivory, president of Gregg's Pantry.

Angel, MacKenzie, Mildred, Franklin, Damon

We can't imagine the depth of the pain you're feeling and our hearts break for you all. A parent's love for their child is so special, so deep, and so pure. We know there are no words that can truly ease your sorrow. Please know that our prayers are with you, and we're lifting you up to God for comfort and strength. He is our place of peace, joy, and hope. We loved DJ greatly and we will miss his kind and gentle spirit. His memory will be with us forever.

We find peace in the promise of Isaiah 41:10, where God says, "Do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." May His presence bring you some measure of peace in the days ahead.

*We are here for you, always.
With love and sympathy,
Adolphus, Diann and the Jackson children*
