I hadn't seen Dan since the day of my retirement from IBM in 1999. His picture above is how i remember him. Dan was a great guy and friend. He will be missed

“ To Lenora and family: I worked with Dan at IBM in Raleigh. He taught me so much about the business, life, politics and most importantly, investing my money. When I first came to the group, he came to my office, introduced himself, and asked if I were putting away the maximum in our 401 K plan. 🙄 Admittedly, I was not and he proceeded to remind me every day of how I was leaving money on the table. Of course, I eventually made the change and have not regretted it one bit. As I faced financial hardship later in life, I was thankful that I had listened to him and reaped the reward. Even after his retirement, we checked in on one another and our families. I am sure we have spoken by phone at least once Lenora. Dan was a fine man, friend and father -figure. He loved his family and was very proud of their accomplishments. I am praying for you all but I KNOW that you have wonderful memories of Dan - I sure do. GOD BLESS

“ To the Robinson Family, I am so sorry for you loss. I was shocked to hear the news today of Dan's passing, when I had called to chat with him. I worked with Dan at IBM from 1982 until the day he retired. He was not only a co-worker, but he was a dear friend of mine, and we had kept in touch after his retirement. I will always remember most his laughter, and his big heart.

Thought and prayers to all.

“ Lenora and family. Sincere sympathy to you in the loss of your husband and our friend, Dan. We at ASU were so proud of Dan working in the bank as the only Black person. He was always smiling and was so genuine and sincere. Sending love and hugs. Mable Pryor.

I also worked with Dan at IBM in Raleigh North Carolina. He was such an easygoing man. I don't ever remember him getting upset but just doing a good job. He will be remembered.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of your loss of Dan. I hired Dan at IBM in Montgomery many years back and he and I worked side by side for several years before we went in different directions. I teased him about being his "white" cousin and shared many laughs with him. He was a soft spoken gentleman and a fine family man! My prayers are with all his family during this time. God bless his soul and give his family peace and rest.
