“ Dannie and I played a lot of golf together during the time we worked in Charlotte. It is said that playing the game of golf reveals character. On and off the course Dannie displayed high character and a good sense of humor. When he joked about someone, he made the joke on himself. God bless his soul.

“ I was so sorry to hear about Danny passing. Danny and I started at St Paul Ins together about the same time and I worked with Danny in Atlanta in the late 1970's.

He was a great guy and always optimistic about everything.

We started a company basketball team together as co captains even though we were too old to run up and down the court very long. I remember us winning only one game in the league but it was great win that night and we celebrated.

Great insurance claims man but an even better human being .

So sorry for your loss.

“ A big man with a big heart. I knew Dannie first while we were both a part of the Atlanta Service Center, then when I went to CHQ and was a regional liability manager for Atlanta. The scenario flipped when I came to DC and Tuck took my former job and became my regional. We always hooked up at the RCM Conferences after he took over Detroit. I don't ever recall an unkind remark crossing Dannie's lips in my many conversations with him. May he rest in peace, and may his family be comforted by knowing how highly everyone respected Dannie, both as an individual and as a claims professional.

"Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon him. Amen"
