“ I knew Mr. Parker from Wynbrooke from years ago! My heart was crushed to hear of his passing as my heart and mind immediately remember how kind and sincere he was. His laugh and spirit were light and I'm better for it.

“ Sending prayers and condolences to the Parker family. I met Darrell years ago when we worked at Wynbrooke Elementary. He was our in house DJ when he was there. I'll miss our phone calls from time to time and him harassing me on Facebook about the Falcons as he did just a few months ago. Rest in power Parker. 🕊️

“ Darrell as I sit here in tears, I can't believe you are gone. Many thoughts come to my mind...I'm gonna miss seeing you for holidays, reminiscing about the good ole days, talking about Josh and Lays. We always talked about mama and how good God has been to us. Darrell, words cannot express how I feel right now. But what I do know, you are now in a better place.

Soar high my dear brother and take your rest in the arms of the Lord.

I Love You now and always!

Your baby sister,

Val

“ I love my uncle Darrell he may not have been perfect, but as a man he tried. I never had a father figure but my uncle D definitely filled that void, in my early years as a child and coming into my teenage years. Time isn't promised to anyone and I thought I always had time see him whenever, well this is a game changer so all in all, I love you unc and I'm gone miss you thanks for being there for me.

“ Uncle Darrell,

It's a bit unbelievable you're not here with us anymore. I really do wish we could've talked more but I find an ease knowing you're not suffering any longer. I'll miss your weird goofy laugh whenever we did talk and I hope you're up in the clouds dancing away.

I love you so much

“ Darrell,

Words can't express on how sad it is to find out you have left us. Through it all, you lived a good life. I am glad to know you are in a better place and you don't have to suffer anymore. I'll miss our talks about fishing, NFL football and how much you love the Philadelphia Eagles hate the Atlanta Falcons, DJ'ing and listening to the music we grew up with.

I'll miss you forever and will cherish the many memories we created together. Give Mom and Dad a big hug and join them as you all watch over us from above.

Love and miss you.....your brother....Robert
