“Darrell was among the elite of the guys I knew in high school. He was always a thinker...he forced you to see things from more than one perspective. Even after all the years since then, we continued our “friendly debates” in recent months. He is the only one who addressed me as “my beautiful sister”, that and my friend and brother will never be forgotten.

“ A true friend, brother and advocate for Christ Jesus. Really gonna miss the conversations man. No matter what we talked about it ALWAYS ended up on us agreeing on how Good God is. Many will miss you brother, we know earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not heal. Much love.

“ It seems like just a few years ago Darrell and I were sitting outside on the steps of Mr. Broadnax’s portable classroom discussing world issues. We both would get so hyped about all that could be. I can’t explain it but Darrell, like several others in my class, had this crazy special friendship that surpassed this world. Life, family, and our choices sent us in separate directions but never apart. Family, we are all blessed to have spent time with Darrell. Cool, calm, collected, and very smart is what I recall. Thank you for sharing him with us. May your hearts forever be filled and your soul comforted by pleasure-filled memories of my friend.

“ Man, we shared so many memories of our young adult life together. We were the best of friends, teammates, and confidants. The world may have lost a brother, but heaven has definitely gained an angel! “Together we stand, divided we fall”..... Ken Coleman
