“ To the family of Darrell Wayne Williams: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I would like to send my sincere condolences to Darian, Daran and the Williams family as a whole. Darian & Daran your strength inspires me. I know the loss of your father is not easy to deal with. But the way you are handling it is truly amazing. Your dad would be so proud. He always bragged about you both. I hope you know that you meant the world to him. He was a wonderful man and will be truly missed. Remember all the good times you shared with him and all the love he gave you throughout the years. He is not gone. He will live in your hearts forever. Love you both and know that I am always here for you!Ms. Angela (Houston)
