God knew what was best so he laid u down to rest. Not in the way we thought u deserved but he allowed u to go through the test. Ur life has meaning it will change or affect someone that God needed to get too so he used u. God had a plan for ur life from the day that u were born and I can't imagine u being here and not ever knowing u. When u were a kid I use to come and stay all night u played a role in my life along with my Uncle Dwight. Rest In Peace. Family just know his life was not in vain. God needed him while he was ripe and ready to join the rest of the family. He will be in this beautiful paradise living his best life. Love u Aunt Jackie

“ I would never imagine I would have to write this. I'm so lost for words . There is not one word I could say to describe the hurt and pain in my heart from losing you. A piece of me left the day you left. I'm so grateful that God gave me the opportunity for me to be loved by you. He blessed us with beautiful son that looks just like you. He is only one . And it hurts that he will never know you or remember you. But trust me I will always let him know how much you loved him. Because you truly did. Darryl you will always hold a big piece of my heart. We always talked buying that house and being old in rocking chairs on the porch, that just wasn't in Gods plans. Until we meet again. Me and the boys miss you and forever love you.

“ I am truly missing you 😞 don't have you to sit on the porch and talk with at night or have a drink with I miss that so much you were my buddy a very sweet and caring person you shouldn't have had to leave the way you did. I know that God has you in His living arms keeping watch over us that are still here giving your family support in this time of need. I Live and Miss you so much. May you Rest In Heavenly Peace.
