“Dad I miss you and I wish you were here me right now. I wish you was around me. I wish that we can talk right now. I wish we can still be having our talks when you pick me up from school. Or when we would go somewhere out to hang out or just on the phone call I miss everything we did. I remember everything you've taught me what being a man really is being a young man and stand up for what you believe in. the last time we talked was on November 14 and November 15 you told me to make things priority like school and getting my education and doing something good with my life anything that was said about you in a negative manner i ignored because I knew who you were and I know what you stood for and I know you was a hard worker and I knew you was very busy you wanted to spend time with me, but sometimes you couldn't and I understood that and I love you so much because with the time that you have you spent it with me I appreciate every single moment i'm gonna miss you dearly. Imma miss you forever. I won't ever forget anything you taught me jokes, the movies we watched it really meant the world to me. You're my superhero. I am your number one fan. I love you so much dad and I know we'll see each other again , I know you want me to be strong. You want me to keep pushing forward we all love you your family loves you, your kids I love you and the ones that treated you right love you. I will never forget you. and I know you're looking down watching me and keeping me strong because you know I was going to do good in this life because you believed in me and you never quit on me and that never went unnoticed by me so I love you Dee.. sincerely, from your number one fan your son Jordan

“ To my superhero, to my dad to the strongest man, I know I will miss you so much. I'm thinking of you every single day everything you taught me everything you showed me the last time we talked was on November 14th and 15 November, you told me to make sure I make sure I live my life to the fullest and always make sure I make things priority so I can have a good life, and make sure I finish school and do the things that are most important you told me that we all have a testimony and we are responsible for our own sins and be responsible for what I do on this earth until I leave it. I Love you so much you show me what it means to be a young man you show me what it means to be the best version of myself you showed me and told me that being a man is doing things that sometimes you don't wanna do in this world you've helped me get closer with God and I know you were there with him as I'm typing this, i miss you, your family is gonna miss you. Your kids are gonna miss you. I will always remember you Dad. I know you're in a better place now I know you looking down on me and the ones that actually cared for you we will meet each other again one day . I wish we got to hang out more than what we did, but I know he was a hard worker, and I always defended you when somebody says something about you because I know who you are and I know what you stood for you cared and loved me I won't ever forget you and I won't ever forget what you taught me and I will continue to live and be strong for you I love you Dee aka my Super Hero from you're son Jordan ❤️🕊️
