“ Dad,

This was probably the hardest task I've ever been faced with. I am truly heartbroken. I am going to miss you more than you'll know. I'm sad because I'm human, but I Rejoice knowing you aren't in any pain. The selfish side of me wants you back, but I treasure your memories and love. Take your rest, young man. We've got it from here. Love you forever!!

“ *Uncle David,
As I prepare to see you, I am overwhelmed. It is so hard to wrap my head around the fact that you are not going to say, “here comes the Fudge” when you see me. While I am grieving along with my cousins, I am so grateful that you are rejoicing and praising the Lord face to face. I cannot imagine that sweet, sweet reunion that you had seeing Aunt Sharon, Granny, Grandfather, Uncle Russell, Grandma Plum, Aunt Ella Mae, and Grandpa Pete. May God continue to bless and comfort my cousins in this unimaginable loss. May you continue to treasure his memory.
Love always,
Tana*
