“ To the Family & Friends of Mr. Horton:
May "the God of all comfort" grant you all peace and courage as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). Jesus confirmed his role in raising up dead ones when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises!

“ My sincerest condolences to the family of David Horton. No matter who we are, losing a loved one in death is painful. May you find comfort in the God of all Comfort, during this difficult time. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)

I'm sure you have many fond memories of David and the wonderful times spent with him. The Almighty God promises a time when we will be able to spend time with our loved ones and not have to worry about death, because "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing."(1 Corinthians 15:26)

God has also loving provided the hope of resurrection for our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29)

I hope you find these scriptural thoughts uplifting. If you would like to learn more about God's wonderful promises, visit a free Bible educational website www.jw.org. Also, if you have any questions, feel free to contact me at lvtsew@gmail.com.
