“ David has been a neighbor and close family friend since the late eighties.
He always made himself available whenever he was needed with sound wisdom and advice. We will miss his positive energy, passion for the Falcons and especially his infectious laughter.
To the Langston family, may you find peace and comfort in the tender memories of Dave and the love and joy that he shared with you and others.
Our deepest condolences for your loss

“ David and I went to Pepperell High School together. I graduated a year before David, but some of his best friend were in my class, so I had the privilege to get to know David and become friends with him. His positive attitude, joy, wit, contagious laughter, and outgoing wonderful personality made David one of the most popular students in school. When David walked into a room, he lit it up. I'm so thankful I got to see him and talk to him when we had our 50 year class reunion in 2023. He came to it it to get to see all of his friends from our class. David was loved by all that was blessed to know him. My sincerest condolences goes to Walter, his wife, children, family, and his friends who loved him. I pray that God gives you all the strength, grace, mercy, peace, and comfort to help you through this sudden, unexpected, heartbreaking loss!

David- how sad I was to hear of your passing. Whenever I turned into our subdivision, I always looked to see if the garage door was down, especially if I didn't see your car in the driveway. Will miss our talks about our favorite team, yes the Atlanta Falcons. Take your rest my neighbor. Pat, you and the girls have my deepest sympathy and condolences during your loss.

“ I spoke with my Dear cousin a few days before his transition. We talked about New Year’s resolutions and promised to drink more water. He also advised me on which supplements that I should purchase for my 89 year old aunt to prevent colds.

David and I had many conversations and I am going to miss his bright outlook on life, love and laughter. He never spoke an unkind word and he met no strangers. I always felt uplifted after our conversations. He just made me and others feel good. I am so thankful to God for the time we shared.

I especially remember meeting David, Walter and “Little “ Ricky in DC a few years ago where they attended a Falcons game. They all looked so handsome and proud in their Falcons jerseys. Most recently, David and I danced our last dance together at a family reunion.

I miss my cousin and friend but God missed his Angel more. To the family, I know that God and the preceding ancestors met David with open arms and said, “Well done my good and faithful servant “. Be encouraged and we will rejoice with David on the other side.

With deepest sympathy and condolences.

David you were more than a cousin and friend. You were more like a brother to me and I absolutely loved the wonderful, special times we spent together. I always loved your phone calls and your jovial nature. From the moment I answered the phone until the time we said goodbye it was fun and laughs! Thank you for your love and kindness to me. I love you brother and will miss you dearly. May Gold bless and rest your soul.

“ It is with a heavy heart and deep sorrow that I write to honor my dear friend and brother, David, a person who was truly one of a kind. Growing up just a few houses down the road from each other, I had the privilege of spending more than twenty years of my life by his side. During that time, we shared countless adventures and experiences that will remain with me forever.

From the start, David was a constant in my life. He taught me how to ride a bike, spent hours playing sports with me in high school, and later, we both ended up at Georgia State University, pledging the same fraternity. David wasn't just a friend—he was the brother I never knew I needed.

As life pulled us in different directions over the years, we didn't see each other as often, but David always found a way to stay connected. The past few years, especially, were filled with meaningful conversations that I'll never forget. Knowing that David was just a phone call away was a true comfort, and those talks will always hold a special place in my heart. His influence on my life was immeasurable, and I feel incredibly lucky to have had him not only as a friend but as a brother in every sense of the word.

Though David is no longer physically with us, his memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew him. I will carry with me the lessons he taught me, his kindness, and the joy of our friendship. David, thank you for being the remarkable person you were. You will always be missed, but your legacy will continue to shine.

My deepest sympathies and heartfelt condolences go out to his family and all who loved him. I hope we can all take comfort in knowing how many lives David touched in such a positive and lasting way.
