

David Nelson

April 9, 1931 - August 17, 2020

David Nelson was born April 9, 1931 in Camden, Alabama to Mark and Marie Nelson. David graduated from Annemarie High School before volunteering for the military. He joined the United States Army and served two terms in Korea.

After having been honorably discharged from the military, David married Bernice Crawford. They raised two children, Vontress Nelson Love and Richard Nelson.

The widowed David Nelson married Leona Jemison in 1985. That bond lasted until his death, August 17, 2020. This marriage saw David's interest in christianity peak. He joined 23rd Street Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama, where he became a Sunday school teacher. His leadership and knowledge of the bible was recognized and he was made a deacon.

David's hobbies included fishing and advanced bible studies. He was very active with his grand children and great grands. He was especially fond of the annual fishing trips taken with his step son, Larry Jemison and his younger brother, Jack Montgomery.

David is survived by a son, a daughter and a step son a number of grand children, April Love, London Love, Ledra Jemison, Larry Jemison, Jr., Ken Jemison and Joe Jemison, Jr. eleven great grands, Michael, Triniti, Cedric, David, Dalton, Ryan, Natasha, Amber, Adrienne, Madison and Jada.

His surviving siblings are Jack Montgomery and Josie Mason.

The rest of the Nelson clan included Mark, Arish, Marshall, Maxine, Bethena and Joseph. He is also survived by a number of nieces, nephews and cousins.
