

David Schumm

April 30, 1955 - April 19, 2025

David Daniel Schumm, a beloved father, entrepreneur, and passionate golf enthusiast, left this world on April 18, 2025, at the age of 69. Born on April 30, 1955, in Alexandria, Virginia, David brought joy and laughter to all who knew him. He was the cherished son of Robert and Maxine Schumm, and is survived by his son Benjamin, his grandson Canon, his brother Richard, and his sister Elizabeth.

David made his career out of the things he loved. As owner of the Atlantic Candy Company, his entrepreneurial spirit thrived. He explored his love of golf as a Club Professional at Henderson in Savannah and Golden Bear in Hilton Head Plantation and as caddy at Secession in Beaufort and the Ford Plantation in Richmond Hill. Additionally, David entertained fans with his vibrant enthusiasm as an in-game announcer and color commentator for the Savannah Cardinals.

In addition to being an avid and expert golfer, David was a fascinating expert in the craft and practice of boomerangs, and a music aficionado. He was joyful, generous, and entertaining. He is beloved.

A special gathering is being planned to honor his memory, where family and friends will spread his ashes at Kitty Hawk in the Outer Banks — a place that holds significance and beauty, much like the life he lived.

David Daniel Schumm leaves behind a legacy of joy, love, and enthusiasm that inspired everyone he met. He will forever be remembered for his engaging spirit and the challenges he presented to those around him, encouraging them to pursue their passions with the same fervor that he did. His memory will live on in the hearts of his family, friends, and the countless lives he touched throughout his remarkable journey.

Tribute Wall

TS

“ I'm very sorry for the loss of a gregarious soul. My deepest condolences to all of Dave's family and friends. ”

Terrie Spells - May 21, 2025 at 08:29 PM