

David Sonny Williams

January 21, 1962 - September 21, 2020

David Sonny Williams, unexpectedly transitioned into eternal peace on September 21, 2020.

David was born in Buffalo, New York to the late Herbert and Ellamae Williams, at Millard Fillmore Hospital. He grew up on the Eastside of Buffalo, and attended P.S. #23, and Kensington High School.

When he lived in Buffalo, David attended Gethesamane Baptist Church, where his mother was a longtime member.

As a young man David worked in the family business “Spearman’s Home Improvement” in Buffalo, New York, where he learned many skills. Upon relocating to Georgia, he utilized these skills and landed a job at Independent Home Improvement and Roofing Contractor. Later, David worked at Popeye’s Chicken (GPS Hospitality) in Lawrenceville, Georgia, where he was a cook. Popeye’s has indeed lost a valuable, loyal and dependable employee.

David met his life partner Shanah Renee Green twenty-five years ago. Their inseparable life together was rich in love, friendship and adventure. One of his defining moments was when Shanah proposed to him on the Mark Wahlberg show, which resulted in him marrying her on February 4, 1997.

Football and playing cards were among some of David's favorite pastimes. His favorite football team was the Buffalo Bills. He would get together with his family for a party celebration at "The Lark House". On Sundays and holidays the Family would also gather at his mother's house, for some holiday cheer, scrumptious cooking, and lots of fun. David loved his family and cared about them unconditionally through good times and bad times.

“ I left home when David was 7 yrs old. He was the baby brother who was a little Bad and Annoying from a big sisters Perspective. But when I left home how I missed him and my other brother and sisters. Just before I left David and his sister (Ellawese) in crime put water balloons in my suitcase. He would do things just to get under my skin. I will Miss you brother wish we would've been closer in our adult years. R.I.H
