Dawn Renee Gillispie-Simmons was born on May 29, 1957 in Paterson, New Jersey to the late Gertrude Gillispie-Walker and the late Jimmie Gillispie. She departed this earth on May 29, 2017. Dawn was educated at St. Joseph Catholic School in Paterson, NJ. She relocated to Atlanta, Georgia in 1991 she was a member of St. Philip AME Church, in Decatur, GA., and resided in Dekalb County until her transition from this life. She was a dedicated and loving member of the community where she was known for being a loving wife, mother, grandmother and caregiver. She always had a smile on her face and made everyone she met feel as though they were a member of the family. In her spare time she enjoyed cooking and feeding the community. She will be remembered for her nurturing and humorous personality. She was predeceased by her brother Andrew Williams and Tyrone Gillispie.

She leaves to cherish loving memories to her husband, Lawrence Simmons, her three sons, Travis Marquette (Terry) Gillispie, Jermaine Kendell Gillispie, and Lamar Rashaun Gillispie. Seven Sisters, Geraldine Rumph, Patricia Oliver, Rose Holmes, Shelia Boggan, Faith Gillispie, Twaniece Smith (Derrick), Deborah Ramsey (Darol) and one brother Dwayne Gillispie. Her grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends. She also leaves to mourn several family members from Paterson, New Jersey. Oh dear Dawn we loved you, but God loved you best.

Dawn

Your name fits you so well.

The sun rises before the dawn.

Momma named you that because of the light in your soul.

The smile on your face, the twinkle in your eyes we will miss the most.

The family togetherness, the outing will never be the same without you.

We love you today and we will love you tomorrow.

All our love for you will never die.

Love the Family

“ The "God of all comfort" empowered Jesus to resurrect dead ones when he was on the earth, giving us evidence of what He will do in the future. Keep in mind; "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~ 1 John 4:9.
I extend sincere condolences to you all...
