“ Robin and family you all have my deepest condolences for the loss of Melvin. I've known Melvin since kindergarten class at Connecticut Farms. He was always a really nice young man. I got to see him again after many years at one of the gatherings Classes of 78,79 & 80 (he still looked the same!) Since then I learned of his strong faith and love of God family and friends. May your memories of Melvin fill your hearts with joy, laughter and faith.
