“ To the BENTON FAMILY,
God looked around his garden and found an empty space. Then He looked down upon this and saw your face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best.

“ Hi Karonda and family, i am one of Deborah former coworkers at Macys. I am so happy that I was able to continue to talk with your mom until the last two weeks of her life. I kept up with what was going on by talking with my friend Margaret. You and your family have my deepest condolences and continued prayers. I am sorry that I couldn't make it to her home going, but my baby sister received a Humanitarian Award on Saturday at 12:00 noon. Please keep each other uplifting always. Much love. Mary P. Jones

“ Beautiful homecoming celebration for my friend today. I know that God makes no mistakes, however there will be a void in my life because of her absence. So much history between us. From Sheppard Rd., to Fourth Street and Second Street, we have a lifetime of memories between us. . RIP my friend. ..🙏

“ To the Benton, and Shoemake Family. My heart goes out to you all. God has called his angel home with him. She will no longer suffer this cruel world. My condolences and prayers goes to the family. For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son. So we should not feel sad tht he called our sister/friend/cousin, loved one home for she is in good company.

When God calls our loved ones home, he leaves a gift of memories instead. Let those memories comfort you in a time like this. May Angels walk with the family today, and always.

“Wow! I am at a loss for words. I am still having a hard time believing you are gone. I passed your house so many times and never stopped in to say hi. Life took us to different paths and lead us to rush from one place to another - remembering your friends and taking for granted that you would one day see them again. Now, I have to say...

"I'm sorry that I didn't stop in. Had I done so, I would have known that you were ill. I would have seized the opportunity to visit with you while there was still time. Debbie, Debbie, Debbie, I was going to try and talk you into playing softball with us - next Stone Mtn Day. 50 and over against the young ones - three innings. I still see you out in left field. Holding your head back as you always did when you managed to catch that ball. Those were the good ole days that we haven't chatted about in a while but the memories are as fresh as if they'd happened yesterday. Though you will be missed down here, I know you are in a place now that many of us PRAY we get to and you will be looking down on Koronda and your grand kids.

You were always private and stayed true to yourself until the very end. No more suffering - No more Pain - GOD has welcomed you to a place where you have been given the ultimate reward.....your own set of WINGS!

Say "Hi" to my parents and my sisters and brothers for me. I'm sure Barry is happy to see you again.

Missing you"
