“ *Mrs. D,
I was lucky enough to work with you and got a chance to see what a wonderful and spiritual fill woman you was. Thanks for sharing your laughter and words of wisdom. Thanks for being a beautiful and kind soul. May GOD comfort your family during this difficult time. Find comfort that Deborah is in no more pain.*

“My condolences and prayers to Mr. Jeff and the Family. Mrs. Deborah was such an inspiration to me for years. We started working together at EDS. We were laid off and when the job (HP) started back hiring she contacted me back and we reconnected. I worked as her Lead person for years. We shared so many stories laughing, crying and a few disagreements. We had just talked in January. This one really hurts. God knows the plans and He needed her more. I will hold on to ALL those special conversations. Rest well and I will truly miss you! Tracy Cherry

My heartfelt sympathy to Deborah's family. I was incredibly saddened to hear about Deborah's passing. I had the pleasure of knowing and working with her. She was always friendly, greeting me with a smile and a hug, joyful, kind, and caring. She was spiritual and love the Lord. May your happy memories of her be like a warm hug from her and a comfort to you. She will live in your hearts forever.

My deepest sympathy to the Griffin and Alford families. Deborah was a true light to all she came in contact with her smile and love.. I cherish the memories of the time we spent working together and conversations outside of work. God has another angel to heavens!
