“ From the time I was born you were there.
Always helping out and always doing my hair.
All the trips and the fun memories that we were able to share.
The time you painted my nails with polka dots and red not knowing my mom had a Disney trip planned.
Being the flower girl in your wedding was one of my favorite memories that we were able to share.
Helping me find my dress for my senior photos and for my prom dress were moments I will never forget and cherish forever.
You were a great aunt and a great mother that was always there.
Love you Aunt Deborah I love you and I wish you were still there.
Love, Jordania

“ My heart is broken and I don't even know where to begin....I will start with I love you, WE love you, YOU mattered! I have so many great memories with you! You were there with me every step to plan my wedding, my kids birthdays, and all our holiday gatherings. You spent countless hours making sure everything was just right! You have always been there for me and picked me up in my times of despair, and reminded me to see the bright side (even comforting me in the middle of the night when everyone else was asleep). I could always count on you and that meant a lot to me. I will cherish the memories we have together, especially the most heartfelt ones like when you helped with my veil on my wedding day, and the gifts you have given me along the way to remind me how special our bond was. I hate that I will miss your homegoing service, but I know you would not want me to miss my daughters graduation either! Until we meet again, my sister, rest in the arms of Jesus and eternal happiness.

“ My favorite memory of Deborah was our first encounter in 2016. Deborah saw me standing at the front of Gwinnett gymnastics center and came to me and said “Hi, I’ve never seen you before pretty lady, where are you from? I’m Deborah”. She really made my day because I didn’t know anyone there and felt alone waiting for my daughter to finish practice. I loved her spirit, helpfulness, and care for others. I admired and respected Deborah, and she will be missed.

Our condolences and prayers go out to the family and loved ones of Deborah; especially precious Essence.

“ Bro. Carlton, Essence and family. It is indeed with great sorrow that we share with you in the passing of Sis. Deborah. Her beautiful smile and her delight in sharing the Lord will be missed. Her dedication to Essence in that they were always together is a testament to her complete love for her daughter. God is with the broken hearted and "He will keep you in perfect peace." Love to you all.
