“ Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope during this most difficult time. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort and the love of your family give you the strength you need to endure. (2 Corinth. 1:3,4)

“ Debra was counted as one of my best friends when we were seniors at Dacula High School. I know that year was challenging for her, being at a new school for her senior year, but she was up to the task. She could always make me laugh. Once after we graduated, I invited her to go our class reunion with me. She made the comment I can't go because I would have to rent me a husband and some kids. Because all the other classmates would be talking about theirs. I got to continue that friendship when she would come to visit me at work. I know she will be missed by all, especially me. “ *My sincerest condolences to the family of Mrs. Debra Warbington. No matter who we are, losing a loved one in death is painful.. The pain, grief and feelings of helplessness is unbearable. At 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 the Almighty God invites us to look to him for comfort and strength to endure difficult times. May you find peace and solace in Him and in your fond memories of Debra.
